SALT LAKE ARTS ACADEMY	Salt Lake Arts Academy	Version 1
	Policy Title: Supervision of Students in School Sponsored Activities	Effective Date: 2.24.2025

SLArts, SLArts coaches, and other designated School leaders shall comply with Utah Administrative Code Rule R277-605.

Definitions

Coach: An individual who independently supervises students participating in an extracurricular activity on behalf of SLArts.

Policy

Coaches and other designated school leaders shall diligently supervise students at all times while on school-sponsored activities, including supervising students:

- on the field, court, or other competition or performance sites;
- in locker rooms, in seating areas, in eating establishments, and in lodging facilities; and
- while traveling.

Coaches and designated school leaders are responsible for a student as long as a student remains on school grounds following a school-sponsored activity, subject to the following:

- After a school-sponsored activity on School grounds is over, parents/guardians are responsible to pick up their child promptly after the activity or make arrangements for someone else to pick up their child promptly after the activity; and
- If a child has not been picked up within 15 minutes of the school-sponsored activity ending, school coaches or other designated school leaders will contact the student's parent/guardian by telephone. If the student's parent/guardian cannot be reached by telephone, school coaches or other designated school leaders will contact, by telephone, the emergency contact(s), if any, designated by the student's parents/guardians. If neither the parent/guardian nor an emergency contact can be reached or are able to pick up the student in a timely manner, school coaches or other designated school leaders may contact the police or the Division of Child and Family Services (DCFS) to report the situation.

Behavior and Conduct

A coach or other designated school leader shall be an exemplary role model and may not use alcoholic beverages, tobacco, controlled substances, or participate in promiscuous sexual relationships during school-sponsored activities.

Coaches, assistants and advisors shall act in an appropriate manner (consistent with Section 53G-8-209) and may not:

- use foul, abusive, or profane language while engaged in school related activities; or
- permit hazing, demeaning, or assaultive behavior, whether consensual or not, including behavior involving physical violence, restraint, improper touching, or inappropriate exposure of body parts not normally exposed in public settings, forced ingestion of any substance, or any act which would constitute a crime against a person or public order under Utah law.

School personnel, activity leaders, coaches, advisors, and other personnel may not require students to attend out-of-school camps, clinics, or workshops for which the personnel, activity leaders, coaches, or advisors receive remuneration from a source other than the school or district in which they are employed.

Required or voluntary participation in summer or other off-season clinics, workshops, and leagues may not be used as eligibility criteria for team membership, participation in extracurricular activities, or for the opportunity to try out for school-sponsored programs.

An athletic coach shall maintain high-quality hands-on cardiopulmonary resuscitation and first aid certification through an approved provider.

An athletic coach shall annually receive training in responding to concussions and head injuries consistent with SLArts Head Injury Policy.

A coach shall complete child sexual abuse prevention training as described in SLArts Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Policy.

A coach shall complete training on bullying, cyber-bullying, hazing, and retaliation consistent with SLArts Bullying, Hazing, Retaliation, and Abusive Conduct Policy.

SLArts shall maintain verification of its coaches' compliance with this section.
